Thank you to those who have already contributed for 2017. The generous support from our readers ensures that The Wayne Messenger will continue to thrive!

PASTOR'S NOTE

Greetings,

Happy New Year! This is the second month that some of you have heard me say those same words. Although the church new year began with Advent, the start of a new calendar year brings with it much talk of resolutions and new beginnings.

At this time, most of us pause and reflect on our lives...where we have been, where we are now and where we would like to be. Christmas gifts may be all opened, but in this season of Christmastide, the wonder of Christmas is still upon us. We have just celebrated the birth of Christ and are aware of His presence in our lives. But do we feel it? Do we really realize that Christ came for each and every one of us?

Through the grace of God, we receive not only a new year but a future open to God's promise. We are given another gift; an opportunity to be mindful and reflective about our spiritual journey. Christ walks with us every step of the way. Will we walk with Him as well?

May we walk forward in faith and confidence, trusting that God is indeed with us. May this year not only be a time to look within but a time to look for Christ as we grow into the people that we are called to be.

O God, through your Holy Spirit, your Word and your loving presence, help us to see and appreciate the grandeur of your gifts to us. Teach us to understand your good and holy will for our lives, and give us hearts which gladly and joyfully obey you. May this year of grace be one in which we honor you in both word and deed. We pray this in Jesus' name, Amen

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jen

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Tracy Stevenson and Lt. Patrick McAleer, were married in Falmouth ME on October 8th, 2017. Tracy is the daughter of David and Hazel Stevenson from Wayne and Patrick is the son of Michael and Cynthia McAleer from Orono ME. They were married by US Navy Chaplain Nathan Ferrell on a beautiful Fall afternoon in front of family and friends who travelled from 20 States and 4 other countries to celebrate with them. Tracy and Pat originally met at Kents Hill School. Tracy is now a science teacher and Pat is a pilot in the US Navy. They will be living in Anacortes WA for a few more months and then will be moving to Jacksonville FL next summer.

Friends of the Cary Memorial Library (FOL)

The FOL Winter meeting will be held on February 10, 2018, 9:30 – 11 am at the Williams House. If you love our Cary Memorial Library, (and who does not love our library?) why not join us? If the weather is questionable, feel free to call Sue at 685-9012 to see whether the meeting is being held. All are welcome – please join us! Read on for more information about the FOL!

Thanks to many of you, the Friends of the Library had a very successful holiday fund-raising season this year:

Debby Uliasz, of Northboro, MA. was the lucky winner of the New Sandwich Quilters' "Elegance in Red" quilt. The winning ticket was purchased by Debby at the Wayne Farmers Market, and drawn at the Annual Wayne Elementary School Craft Fair on December 2. Thanks again to the Quilters who, for the past 26 years, have made and donated quilts for the FOL to raffle! It is one of our most important fund-raisers!

Our table at the Holiday craft fair was also very successful! Thanks to Jo Moore, Elsie Dragonetti and Cindy Pelliccia, for creating an appealing and profitable table. Special thanks also, to Jane Andrews and the many individuals who organized, baked for, and ran the December 16 Sweet and Savory Bake Sale at the Williams House.

Are you wondering what we do with all the money we raise? Well, we provide funding for books, magazines and DVD's for the library. We pay for a summer intern to work at the library, and provide a Books for Babies program which enables FOL member Bev Petell to deliver new books to the parents and grandparents of new babies! We also provide support for children's programming and a Maine author visit to Wayne Elementary School.

Please join us! We have lots of fun while supporting our library.

Maranacook String Band to Perform Library Benefit at the Ladd Center - Saturday Jan. 27

The Maranacook String Band, featuring Wayne's own Dana Reynolds, will once more treat listeners to their soul satisfying singing and playing at the Ladd Center on Saturday January 27th at 6pm.

Expect the usual assortment of bluegrass, country and Celtic classics, liberally sprinkled with Stan Keach's internationally renowned originals. Do not be surprised by wry humor.

Doors open at 5pm when delicious and reasonably priced homemade soups and desserts will miraculously appear for sale.

The show starts at 6pm. Tickets are ten dollars in advance and twelve dollars day of show for adults and five dollars for students/children (18 and under). Tickets available at the Cary Library and the Wayne General Store.

All proceeds will benefit the Cary Memorial Library.

In the event of snow the concert will be held on Sunday January 28th

Lego Night

Our popular Lego Club will meet Wed. Jan. 24 at 6PM. (Should the weather be bad, we'll do it the following Wednesday. Call the library if weather is iffy.)

Brown Bag Lunch Book Discussion Group

Our next meeting is Monday Feb. 5, 12noon. We will discuss David Guterson's Snow Falling on Cedars. In the words of novelist Annie Dillard:

"Here is a grand achievement: a compelling, serious, perfectly crafted novel of Puget Sound in the 1950's, The characters and the story and the setting make a fully formed, beautiful whole."

Bring lunch and join us for a lively discussion about this gem of a book.

FIRST SATURDAY AT THE WILLIAMS HOUSE, 14 Old Winthrop Road, Wayne BOOK SALE *BOUTIQUE *BREAKFAST - SATURDAY January 6th - 9 to Noon

Please join us for First Saturday at Cary Library's Williams House. This month, all Christmas themed stories, movies, music and decorations will be half price. While you are here, try our cinnamon buns, scones or quiche. All proceeds benefit the Wayne Library Association. FMI, call 685 3612.

New Books:

Fiction: Midnight Line (L. Child); In the Midst of Winter (Allende); Hidden Agendas: Inside Town Hall a Novel (F. Connolly); Ninth Hour (A. McDermott); Enchantment of Numbers (J. Chiaverini); Return of the Old Maine Woman (Smith); Shadow District (Indriasson); Little Fires Everywhere (C. Ng); Artemis (A. Weir); Sleep No More Six Murderous Tales (James), Rooster Bar (Grisham); and more arriving all the time.

Non-Fiction: Leonardo Da Vinci (Isaacson); Find the Good: Unexpected Life Lessons from a Small Town Obituary Writer (H. Lende); Bird Watching in Maine: A Site Guide; Downsizing the Family Home: What to Save, What to Save, What to Let Go (Jameson); Grant (Chernow); Promise Me, Dad (J. Biden); and more.

LOCAL EVENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LADD CENTER ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Ladd center would like to thank all of the donors we had to help make the tennis court project a huge success. We received so much support and kind words from community members and we greatly appreciate your generosity. The second part of the project will be the basketball court next summer. We are also planning an event in the spring to open the new tennis courts.

On Tuesday, January 9 from 10:30 am-12:30 pm we will begin hosting the "Winter Blues" gathering at the Ladd center. Our first event will be a board game/card games event. Feel free to bring a special game from home or we have many card decks to use at the center. We will provide a light luncheon for everyone and anyone attending is welcome to bring a dessert to share with the group, if you would like to. We will continue to hold these events the second Tuesday of every month-if the weather doesn't cooperate please call the center at 685-4616 for details.

The center is also looking for any plastic or old snowboards for children. We have so many children that love playing outside in the snow sledding and we have two snowboards that they share. If you find any that your older children no longer use and would like to donate them to the children, they would greatly appreciate it.

The board and myself would like to wish you all a wonderful holiday season and thank you all for your support in making our community center a wonderful place.

A THANK YOU FROM SANTA

The North Pole was bustling with final preparations for Christmas Eve when I received a weather report informing me that the first snowflakes had already fallen in the quaint Town of Wayne, Maine.

I knew that it was time for my annual visit to Wayne. Upon my arrival, I noticed that the local shops and eateries were busy with excitement due to the Wayne Holiday Stroll.

Chatting with all the folks in Wayne, especially all the good little boys and girls, was just delightful.

I would like to give a special thank you to all the wonderful folks who gave their time and endless energy to help make my visit possible. A big thank you goes out to:

- Jen Curran for her help with the gift ideas, selection and preparation.
- Cathy Cook and Dawna Gardner for helping me prepare for this event.
- Taylor Stevenson for his technical skills in exterior illumination and making Wayne's holiday tree look so bright and cheerful.
- Gina Lamarche for her expertise in the planning of this event - making the impossible possible.
- Margot Gyorgy for dreaming big ideas and offering her family property for such a fun event.
- Bill Messer for giving the reindeer a rest and offering me a ride in his sweet 1957 Buick Super.

Wishing all a safe and happy holiday season!

Santa

News from the 30 Mile River Watershed Association

THANK YOU

As we look into the New Year, we are truly grateful for your support in our efforts to preserve and protect the 30 Mile River Watershed. This year we again look forward to providing water quality monitoring, courtesy boat inspections, and erosion control projects through our Youth Conservation Corps. Our lake protection programs would not be possible without the generous support of individuals like you. If you are interested in learning more about our programs or making a donation, please check out our website!

30MRWA Welcomes AmeriCorps Member Marissa Rossi

We are pleased to announce the addition of Marissa Rossi to the 30MRWA team! Marissa will be joining us as an Environmental Steward through the Maine Conservation Corps, a program offered through AmeriCorps. She will be coordinating the water quality monitoring and Youth Conservation Corps programs and brings with her a wealth of experience and a passion for preserving and protecting our environment. We are thrilled to have her on board.

To learn more about Marissa and the other staff and directors at 30MRWA, check out our website.

Now Accepting Project Requests for the 2018 YCC Season

While it may feel like lightyears away, it's not too soon to start thinking about summer! Do you have a sloped driveway, patches of bare soil, or an eroding pathway on your lakefront property? If so, you likely qualify for your own reduced cost project through our Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) program! Contact us today to submit a site visit request to line up your project for this coming season. Projects may include: shoreline plantings, rain gardens, infiltration steps (above right), open-top culverts, and more. All projects are designed in partnership between the landowner and experienced technical program staff. For more information on our erosion control YCC program, or to submit a site visit request, see our YCC page on our website.

Happy New Year from all of us at the 30 Mile River Watershed Association!
