PASTOR'S NOTE

Greetings,

I write this while at the New England Annual Conference in Manchester, New Hampshire, just after we took a three-minute break to be in prayer for our church. None of us knows what the outcome will be of the upcoming special General Conference in 2019 or what that will mean for the United Methodist Church. But, regardless of the outcome, one thing that we know for sure is that God will continue to lead us in Wayne, Maine as well as around the world.

A couple of weeks ago, I had the privilege of watching a butterfly leave its chrysalis. Has anyone ever seen that? It is an incredible experience; I couldn't help but watch. The chrysalis just seems to burst with excitement and anticipation. Out of a small space a butterfly unfolds. New life emerges out of what appeared to be an enclosed capsule. God's handiwork was unfolding in front of my very eyes. I was reminded of the Hymn of Promise.

"In the bulb there is a flower, in the seed, an apple tree; in cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free! In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody; there's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity; in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity. In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see." (UMH, 707)

The butterfly was preparing for new life and, as a local and connectional church, we are preparing ourselves as well. As we gather weekly in worship, we reach up to God and renew our spirits. Throughout the week, we hold one another up in prayer and reach out to a world in need. As individuals, we also prepare. We prepare so we are ready to receive God's promises and abundant love. We prepare so we are ready for expected and unexpected blessings. As we open ourselves up to God, we too experience new life.

May we always remember to reach up so we can continue to reach out!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jen

AGING AT HOME - WAYNE

Monthly lunches for caregivers and ALL will continue this summer. Call Pam or email if you would like to attend these.

The Smoke alarm project raised requests for more than 75 Wayne households to receive smoke alarms. By the time you read this, these alarms should have been installed, making homes of Wayne much safer. A working smoke alarm doubles your chance of escaping a burning building alive.

If you know someone who could use a visit or phone call on a regular basis, please get in touch.

POCASSETT LAKE BOAT PARADE

Again this year there will be a Pocasset Lake boat parade at 4pm on July 4th. Decorate your boat to compete for a prize or just join the parade. Boats are asked to swing by the Ladd dock for a picture starting at 345 with a sign telling us who you are and then fall into line behind the lead boat for a trip around the lake. Respond to carol.ladd13@gmail.com to get on the roster. Spectators welcome!

WAYNE FARMERS' MARKET

The Wayne Farmers' Market is celebrating its 10th season this year! Support your local farmers and producers every Saturday morning from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day weekend, from 9 am to noon. You can fulfill many of your shopping needs - vegetables, herbs, meat, poultry, eggs, dairy products, baked goods, pepper jellies, pies, plants, flowers, goats' milk soap, natural skin care products, pottery and more. In addition to many of the products we've come to enjoy, there will be new people and new products this year.

Music will enhance the market most weeks and Sam Saunders will again be conducting cooking demonstrations, using products from the market vendors. Tasty free samples will be available, as we learn interesting ways to be creative cooks.
