Dear Wayne Messenger Subscriber,

Each year we ask readers of the Messenger to make an annual donation. Thanks to the generosity of many of you, for the past two years we have been able to cover production costs for our staff, printing, and postage, exceeding $9,000 annually. Each month the Messenger is mailed to over 575 homes and emailed to almost 400 subscribers.

We hope you continue to be pleased with the attractive and informative Messenger that contributes to a vibrant, wide-spread Wayne community by sharing local news and activities all in one place. We welcome your news! If you have any information to share, please email your submission to Gina Lamarche, Editor, at editorwcc@gmail.com by the 15th of the month.

To ensure the current and future sustainability of the Messenger, we continue to need support from both email and hard copy recipients. Our expenses have not declined. Checks with your 2018 donation can be made out to Wayne Community Church, with Messenger Fund in the memo, and mailed to Wayne Community Church, P.O. Box 300 Wayne, ME 04284. If you have already sent us a donation this year, thank you so much for your support!

If you have any questions or comments about the Messenger, please feel free to contact the WCC Messenger Committee at wayneumc@roadrunner.com or Gina Lamarche, Editor.

Thank you for your support,

Dear Members of the Wayne Community,

Many thanks for supporting our Boutique Sale at the Wayne Community Church. We are grateful for the many donations of beautiful, gently worn clothing and accessory items.

We welcomed many new faces to the church. We also were able to connect with old friends. Many of the clothing items were sold at extremely reasonable prices.

The unsold items were donated to The Salvation Army. For those of you that attended our sale, thank you for your purchases.

Thanks also for purchasing Alice's delicious homemade candy. Thank you to Boothby Orchards for donating apples and cider. Thank you to Karen and Sara Webster for providing lunch.

For all the volunteers that worked at the sale, your hard work was most appreciated. All proceeds went to Wayne Community Church and are reinvested in the community.

We sincerely thank you! Kathryn Soderberg and Carol Ladd, co-chairwoman of the 2018 WCC Boutique Sale.

2018 LIBRARY AUCTION: BY THE NUMBERS
COMPILED BY LYNETTE STINNEFORD, LIBRARY AUCTION CHAIR

As we wrap up this years' Library Auction, here is a little recap of the things we keep track of, notice and actually count. We had 208 items donated to the auction, plus many others that went into our Buy-It-Now department. Sixty-three people made donations to the auction. The 7 member auction team contributed a total of 105 hours to set up the auction. We had at least 578 visitors and, over the course of 10 days, they placed 404 bids!!

Every year something surprises us as the "hot" item that garners the most bids, this year it was the Loon placemats with 13 bids going up 300% over its starting bid! Another little surprise was the La Creuset French Press that went up 400% over its starting bid. And the biggest percentage increase was for the antique rotary phone that went 800% over the starting bid - with only 1 bid!! The auction raised $6301.50, which goes into the operating budget of the library.

We appreciate all of the people who made donations, paid a visit and placed a bid. You helped make this years' auction a resounding success.

LOCAL EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

LADD CENTER

The Ladd center is working on the annual Halloween party and needs volunteers to help make a successful and safe party for the children of the community. The board members are looking at two different options this year based on the number of volunteers we have:

Option #1 Would be to hold our regular party on Friday, October 26th from 6-7 p.m. and a parent/adult must accompany their child(ren). We need 8-10 volunteers to run the games and help monitor the children during the party. If you have any interest in helping please contact Donna at 685-4616 by October 12.

Option #2- If 8-10 volunteers are not signed up by October 12 the center will not hold a community party. Instead, we will hold individual parties for each grade level after school the week of Halloween. We will still do games, have art projects and the children will go home with a goody bag. All the children in each grade level are invited to come and enjoy the party even if they don't regularly attend Ladd's after school program.

After October 12th, I will post at Ladd Rec Center, Pooh Bear, and in the school newsletter which option will occur.

The after-school program is as follows

Monday: Kindergarten and First Grade

Tuesday: Second Grade

Wednesday: Third Grade

Thursday: Fourth and Fifth Grade

Friday: Tot-time 9:30-11AM

If you have any questions please feel free to call Donna at 685-4616.

CYNTHIA PETTENGILL FINE ART GALLERY AND MAIN STREET ANNEX

Cynthia Pettengill, Fine Art Gallery, located at the corner of Route 133 and Christmas Tree Lane, will be holding an Art Opening on Saturday, October 6 from 4-7PM. “Pod-ities and Other Findings” features a variety of media that explores natural forms, and reveals unique characteristics derived from a struggle to survive, and to convey their quiet strength to create new generations. Cynthia Ahlstrin of Winthrop is a multidisciplinary artist who creates visual artist’s books, drawings, monotypes, small sculpture and relief printmaking to investigate lessons handed down from older generations, memory, the passage of time and the domestic “rules” for women in our society. This is truly a show you don’t want to miss! Gallery hours are Thursday & Friday evenings 6-8PM, and Sundays 10AM-2PM. Appointments can be made by calling 458-9875.
