"I thank my God every time I (think of) you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you..." Philippians 1: 3-4.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

I first came to Wayne Community Church as a Guest Preacher in November. But now, I am the official half-time Interim Pastor – here until June 30, 2019. And I am thrilled to have this appointment. Why?

- Because of the grace and intentionality with which you're living out these days (before your 'permanent pastor' arrives). I love the energy – and the will; not just to 'sit out' the next six months, but to work together to make them count.

- Because of Hannah! (Need I say more?) She's thorough, conscientious, and she enjoys what she's doing.

- Because of Christina, whose middle name (from the introductions I was given) could be "Such a blessing!"

- I've also appreciated the respectful and appreciative ways with which you've spoken of Pastor Jen.

- You gave me a Welcoming Reception, you offered to practically furnish the Parsonage (which won't be necessary), and Town Manager Aaron Chrostowsky gave me a Five-Star Tour of Wayne!

So, what does one do with this much gratitude?

PAY IT FORWARD! With God's help, I will!

Ruth Merriam, Rev. Dr.

LIBRARY HAPPENINGS

Babytime: Wednesdays 3-4PM Unstructured social time for young and old alike. (Also adorable.)

Storytime: Mondays 10:30 AM We'll share a couple of stories and enjoy play time around the train table and time to borrow books. (Weekly when school is in session)

Music at the Library Saturday, Jan. 12, 2-3:30PM Stone Quarry Band features 3 musicians with eclectic musical backgrounds and styles. The resulting "folk-fusion" style gives new life to classic gems, timeless folk, and original takes on the human experience in everyday life, all with a soulful blend of harmony, rhythm, and guitar. You'll hear tunes you'll recognize from the last four decades as well as original material you'll want to hear again! The current lineup includes Stacey Jacobson on vocals and percussion, Stan Davis on bass, vocals, and harmonica, and Bill Stone, on vocals and guitar. This band likes to make people think, not break their eardrums!

Math Circle: Wednesday, Jan. 15, 6-7 PM Geared to (approx.) grades 2-5. Fun puzzles and challenges to figure out!

Lego Club-Wednesday, Jan. 22, 6-7, PM: Creative building for all young engineers.

Brown Bag Book Discussion: Monday Jan. 28, Noon: Bring your lunch and join us for a discussion of The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot. This phenomenal New York Times bestseller tells a riveting story of the collision between ethics, race, and medicine; of scientific discovery and faith healing; and of a daughter consumed with questions about the mother she never knew. Lending copies will be available.

Sat. Jan. 26, 1PM A Visit with Fly Rod Crosby: Maine writer Pam Matthews is the author of Cornelia "Fly Rod" Crosby, Champion of Maine. While the book is intended for young people, her program is for all ages. Pam will come in costume, and "in character" and will share a program on Maine's first woman Maine Guide. Crosby was a journalist, born in Phillips (1854-1946), Maine, who wrote about fishing, hunting and conservation, and marketed Maine as a destination for sports. Needless to say, she broke many barriers for women.

Copies of her book will be available for purchase and signing. The book is beautifully illustrated by Heidi Kendrick. Our snow date is a week later, Sat. Feb. 2 at 1PM.

2019 Loon Calendars: Sending a warm thank-you out to summer resident Michael O'Malley, who has again photographed, designed and donated these beautiful calendars to benefit the library. Now on sale at the library, $12.00 each or 2 for $20.00.

Wayne Readers Blog: Check out our Fall edition on the library website:

<http://www.cary-memorial.lib.me.us/readers-blog-2/>

As always, the librarian welcomes (and needs) your posts to make the blog a lively and varied way for readers to share what they enjoy and get ideas for new books to try.

Puzzles: A reminder that the library has a small but nice collection of jigsaw puzzles to lend. Most are 500-1000 pieces so of course we'll adjust the borrowing period accordingly.

Knitting & Needlework Group: The participants will be re-starting their Sat. 1:30 meetings in January. Should there be interest, in a weekday afternoon group would be an additional option--to be arranged at the convenience of those interested.

Friends of the Library (FOL) News

Olivia Brown, from Farmington, was the ecstatic winner of our 2018 Quilt raffle, when her name was chosen from hundreds of raffle tickets during the Christmas Craft Fair on December 1. Olivia loves libraries and is a true booklover who likes to support libraries. We are so pleased that she purchased the winning ticket! Thanks once again to the New Sandwich Quilters who, for the past 27 years, have made and donated quilts for the FOL to raffle! Their creativity, skills and generosity are truly outstanding and greatly appreciated!

This year's table at the Wayne Christmas Craft Fair brought in about $250 to the FOL budget. Special thanks to Jan Folk, Elsie Dragonetti, Kim King and Janet Crane for their parts in creating a tasty and appealing table.

Special thanks also, to Jane Andrews and the many individuals who organized, baked for, and ran the December 15 Bake and Book Sale at the Williams House.

The FOL Winter Meeting is scheduled for March 16, 2019, at 9:30 AM, with a snow date of March 23. If you love the Cary Memorial Library, please join us! We have lots of fun while supporting our library.

Wishing you a happy and healthy 2019,

Sue Spalding; FOL Chair

FIRST SATURDAY AT THE WILLIAMS HOUSE

AGING AT HOME NEWS JANUARY 2019

Hello Good Wayne People,
The next AAH senior luncheon (free to ALL) will be January 9 at 11:30 at the Cary Library. Please let me know if you plan to attend 685-9378.

There is an elder who is homebound and mostly bed-bound in Wayne who would like regular phone calls or visits or both. You can decide together with her what the frequency should be. Is anyone willing to help with this? Or any 2 people??

There are 2 pair of brand new in-the-box JOBST (expensive) black, size medium, thigh-high compression stockings looking for a good home. Also, a nice walker, brand new. Do you or someone you love need either of these?

For those having trouble paying property taxes in Wayne, call the town office. They may be able to help you. For others who can help pay taxes for others, please talk to Aging At Home or the Town Office about how to contribute to that fund. And THANK YOU.

Tips for improving your health and combatting aging

- Quit smoking
- Keep active
- Eat well
- Maintain healthy weight
- Prevent falls
- Get immunizations from your PCP
- Prevent skin cancer
- Get regular dental, vision and hearing checks.
- Fall prevention is a big issue in the minds of elders. Help prevent falls at your house. Request a bucket of sand from Aging At Home.
- December started off the winter pretty cold, but when I think of all you are doing for each other in Wayne, I am greatly warmed. Thanks to all!

NEWS FROM THE WAYNE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

On Sunday, December 9, the Conservation Commission sponsored the first of several scheduled Winter Walks in Wayne. Twenty-three people attended a short presentation at the Cary Memorial Library highlighting local properties that offer winter recreation. Fourteen hardy souls continued on to the Wilson Pond Lot off House Road for a hike. Refreshments were enjoyed at the Williams House afterwards. The varied terrain of the Wilson Pond Lot includes level areas suitable for an accessible trail and steep slopes above the pond for those seeking an all-season outdoor challenge. A map of the Wilson Pond Lot can be viewed at the Wayne Town Office. The next Winter Walk in Wayne is scheduled for Sunday, February 10, 2018. Details will be posted on the town website.

WAYNE AREA GARDEN CLUB

The Wayne Area Garden Club meets January through May and in September and October at the Ladd Recreation Center at 6:30 pm (come early for socializing) on the fourth Thursday of the month. Dues are $12.00 per household per calendar year. Everyone is welcome. We would be happy to have you join us.

Next meeting: Thursday, January 24, 2019 6:30 pm at the Ladd Rec Center on Gott Rd. Come early. Speaker and topic to be announced.

Ladd Center News

The Ladd center and Aging at Home will be starting the "Coffee and Conversation" group in January. Everyone is welcome to attend and play board games, cards or just visit with other members of the community. The group meets the 2nd and 4th Monday of every month from 10am- noon at the Ladd Recreation Center. There will be coffee and a small snack provided, if you like to bake goodies please feel free to bring them in with you to share with community members. Some of the games we have played are cribbage, sequence, scrabble and a few card games. If you have any games to share please bring them along. If you have any questions please feel free to call the center at 685-4616.

Kennebec Land Trust

Thank you for a great 2018!

Thank you to our members, volunteers, and friends for your generous support in 2018. From expanding the Mount Pisgah Community Conservation Area, to our Fifth Tri-Sport Challenge on Echo Lake, to our most recent land donation, the Eastern River Preserve in Pittston, our successes are made possible by your tremendous support.

SUSTAIN WAYNE

Thank you to everyone who came to the Holiday Stroll on December 1st and 2nd! Your support helps create a more vibrant local economy, and really makes a difference to each artisan and area business owner.

We're excited to announce the raffle basket winners! Yes, WINNERS. We always knew Wayne artisans and business owners are a generous bunch, so we weren't surprised when the gift basket value rose above $425. With so many great prizes and so many deserving potential winners, we decided to divide it into two baskets this year. Here are the winners!

Peg Lawler of Readfield won the Grey Goose Gourmet gift set (2 large and one small jar of jelly and cookbook), Birtwell Farm Soap, PT Designs handmade bracelet, Blue Collar Painter artwork, S'Mittens mitten warmer inserts, Pickles Potions gift set, $25 gift certificate to Coolidge Hill Meat Market, $15 gift certificate to Cobbie's Corner Store and hat, creamer pitcher by A Lakeside Studio Pottery, 2019 calendar by Margot Gyorgy. This basket is a $215 value.

Debbie Desjardins of Winthrop won the Cynthia Pettengill framed watercolor, $30 gift certificate to Sarah Pettengill, 2 Wayne Village Pottery ornaments, slotted wooden spoon donated by Wayne General Store and made by David Dufour, reindeer sign by Joyce Curtis of Vintage Furniture and Signs, Applesauce made by Hazel Hill Orchards in Turner available at Wayne General Store, Birtwell Farm Soap, Old Firehouse Farm utensil carafe. This basket is a $215 value.

Thank you to everyone who donated and to everyone who attended the Wayne Stroll!
