In the March issue of The Messenger, I outlined the reason for the Special General Conference of the United Methodist Church to convene - which was to respond to the request that same-sex marriages be allowed within the context of a religious ceremony, and also to authorize the ordination of gay, lesbian or bisexual persons.

As it happened, many of us clergy, were stunned by the outcome: that both the rules against the ordination of gay individuals and against officiating at same-gender unions were actually strengthened – including penalties for the pastors who defied them.

IF this plan is, in fact, implemented, the decision to exclude LGBTQIA members from full participation in the life of the church may well result in a historic schism (such as occurred in 1844 over the issue of slavery). Nothing will happen ‘overnight’ – but in the meantime, we are standing strong in our stance of inclusivity.

The congregation of The Wayne Community Church submits the following statement:

“Everyone is welcome at the Wayne Community Church. We invite ANY one desiring to grow closer to God through Jesus Christ to participate in the life of the church. We welcome people of any age, race, ethnicity, immigration, marital or economic status, gender identity or sexual orientation, family structure, physical or mental ability, political and religious background. We are all children of God.”

So be it!

Ruth Merriam, Rev. Dr.

Interim Pastor at The Wayne Community UMC

WAYNE MEMORIAL DAY PLANS
MONDAY, MAY 27 2019

COME JOIN US!

Plans are underway for this year's Memorial Day Service and the Memorial Day Committee is working with various groups to create an appropriate reflection and observance.

10:30 a.m. – Veterans, bands, boys, girls, scouts, and anyone with a focus on honoring our veterans should assemble at the Wayne Community Church's parking lot.

11:00 a.m. – The different groupings will leave the parking lot and go down Main Street to Pond Road and back to the Veterans Memorial Stone on Pocasset Lake where a wreath laying ceremony will take place. Then the parade will move to the Veterans Memorial Park where the formal program will continue. If it rains, services will be at the Ladd Center at 11:00 a.m.

Transportation will be provided for any veterans who need a ride in the parade. If you are interested in giving veterans a ride in your vehicle, please contact David Ault (685-4578).

The guest speaker is Gina Lamarche, editor of The Messenger and co-owner of Old Firehouse Farm.

ALL veterans are urged to participate in the parade as a tribute to men and women of the town who have served in different branches of the services in the past.

The Town continues trying to update the records of those who have served in our military branches, not only the names of those who served the country during a war or conflict, but also peace-time military as well. If your name was read in past Memorial Day Services, we have your information; if not, we need it. Please contact the Town Office (685-4983) with the following information: (1) branch of the armed services you served in; (2) your rank on leaving the service; (3) the years you served and where.

Any questions regarding the Memorial Day Service should be directed to Doug Stevenson (685-9005) or Don Welsh (685-4117).

The Wayne Farmers' Market is opening for the year on May 25, our 11th season! The Market has become an institution in town, bringing us together to support local farmers and producers while meeting up with friends and neighbors for good conversation. On Saturday mornings, from Memorial Day weekend (May 25) through Labor Day weekend, we can enjoy fresh, healthy and delicious foods, as well as plants, flowers, body care products and local crafts. There will be some new vendors and products this year - we are anticipating a wide array of vegetables, herbs, meat, poultry, eggs, dairy products, maple products, baked goods, pies, pepper jellies, plants, flowers, soaps, natural skin care products, pottery and more.

Sam Saunders will again be conducting cooking demonstrations, using products from the market vendors. Tasty free samples will be available, as we learn interesting ways to prepare food creatively.

Music will enhance the market most weeks. Come and hear spontaneous songs about what's for sale! Kids are invited to dance and sing along. (Adults, too.)

AGING AT HOME NEWS MAY 2019

Coffee and Conversation, sponsored by the Ladd Center and AAH is over for this season. See you again in the late fall!

Our last Senior Luncheon until the fall will be Wednesday, May 8 at 12 Noon at the Cary Memorial Library. This event is free and open to everyone.

Tai Chi will have it's last Friday "play" at the Ladd Center on May 31st. You should continue doing Tai Chi on your own until we start again in the fall.

Aging At Home has applied for a grant from AARP to provide a number of safety features to Wayne residents. The first feature is: highly reflective address numerals for your house or mailbox. These numbers should help ensure that in an emergency your house can be found by fire or rescue personnel. As John Dovinsky, chief of ambulance service in Winthrop says, "In a life-threatening emergency, time is of the essence. If a house is not clearly identified, that may lead to a delay in treating the person."

Two other safety features are: stickers to place on a window or door of your home indicating to emergency personnel that a child, an elder, or a hard-of-hearing person is living within. Also, the "file of life" red magnetic envelopes which will stick to your refrigerator. You can keep your current medical information in them. In an emergency, the information will be readily available to those concerned.

We are hoping for funding for these 3 safety features from the grant.

The goal of Aging At Home is to help keep elders in their homes for as long as possible as they age.

If you know of someone in need, someone who could use calls, visits, or meals, please contact us.
